THE WOUNDS OF LOVE

Those who care about others pick up a lot of wounds.

There may be no great wounds,

only a multiplicity of little ones –

a host of scratches, wrinkles and welts.

But there can also be a lot of invisible wounds:

the furrows left on the mind and the heart,

by hardship, worry and anxiety,

disappointments, ingratitude and betrayal.

These wounds are not things to be ashamed of.

They are badges of honour.

They are the proof of our love.

Jesus didn't hide his wounds.

Neither should we.

By his wounds we are healed.

"LILY'S GRANDPA IS AN ANGEL"

Pobail le Chéile would like to invite people to visit their website and access this beautiful book "Lily's Grandpa Is an Angel" which was both written and illustrated by Maria Gasol, a Catalan artist living in the Cloughaneely.

"Lily's Grandpa Is an Angel" is a short, illustrated book about grief and love by artist Maria Gasol. Inspired by personal experience of Covid bereavement and in digital form, it's suitable for adults and children. It will hopefully bring a bit of comfort to those grieving. This is a free-to-download PDF, supported by the Irish Hospice Foundation and Creative Ireland. The book is a great resource for parents and children who are coming to terms with the loss of someone close to them. Web link: <http://www.pobail.org/>
