Meet God in Your Neighbour

There is an ancient tradition about the days of John the Evangelist. He lived to a grand old age, becoming so feeble that he had to be carried to the meetings of the faithful. Because of his weakness, he was unable to deliver a long discourse; so at each gathering he simply repeated: "Little children, love one another". The disciples, weary of hearing the same words over and over, asked him why he never said anything else. And to them John gave this answer: "Do this alone and it is enough!"

Love includes everything and it contains everything. Therefore St Paul said there are three important things: Faith, hope and love, and the greatest of these is love.
