Reflection

Dear Lord, here lie in their last rest,
the people who worked on the land.
They knew the meaning of hard work.
They knew the joy and peace that is the product of labour.
Now we trust they know the peace and happiness of everlasting life with You.

These people all their lives long laboured to supply the food and drink necessary to sustain human life.
Now they enjoy in all its fullness the life that You, Lord,
came down to earth to give us.

Dear Lord, bless us who labour now in the fields and hills where these dear dead have worked.
Grant that we may remember them with charity and kindness,
walking reverently in the ways that they have left behind.
Grant, too, that we may finally meet again

Prayer

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
